

Getting care in the Kaiser Permanente Core network

Get high-quality care from primary and specialty care clinicians dedicated to helping you stay healthy – and caring for you when you're not. You can choose the doctor you want and change doctors at any time, for any reason.

Care from Kaiser Permanente

Whether you get care in person or online, you're in great hands with the highest-ranked medical group in Washington for quality, including:¹

- 1,400+ doctors and other clinicians
- 25+ medical facilities and pharmacies

Seamless, connected care

Your Kaiser Permanente doctors, specialists, and other clinicians work together to help keep you healthy. With shared access to your electronic health record, they know your health history and past visit information. This makes it easy for your care team to give you informed, personalized care to keep you feeling your best.

Care from other network providers

All providers in the Core network meet our high standards for clinical quality and patient satisfaction. You can expect the same quality and philosophy of care from our community providers as from Kaiser Permanente doctors and staff.
